

EMERGING ARTIST COMPETITION!

The Artist Project Toronto invites submissions from emerging artists for the Untapped Emerging Artist Competition. Untapped is a juried competition in which 16 of the best up-and-coming young artists are awarded a free space in the 2010 show! This is an excellent opportunity to participate in a professional level art fair and to showcase your work to gallerists, collectors and art enthusiasts.

Winners will:

- > Receive a free space in the Open Gallery section of the show (approximately 10 linear feet)
- > Connect with 10,000 visitors, gallerists & art buyers
- > Network with artists from across North America
- > Get promoted on: The Artist Project website, show guide, press releases & other marketing materials

Who Can Apply?

- > Current students and recent graduates (no more than three years removed from post-secondary or graduate level education)
- > Self-taught artists who have been practicing their art for less than 3 years
- > Winning artists must be personally present for the duration of the show (March 4-7, 2010 at the Queen Elizabeth Building, Toronto, ON)

Visit www.theartistprojecttoronto.com

For applications & more information

Contact:

Kim Selman

T: 416-960-4527

E: kim@mmpicanada.com

EMERGING ARTISTS
untapped

 Find us on Facebook