

Interactive / Print designer

An award-winning firm in London, Ontario, Lashbrook Marketing & Public Relations is looking for an interactive multimedia graphic designer to join our creative and dynamic group of fun, hard working professionals.

If you have a creative mind that can turn great ideas into exceptional finished products and your portfolio speaks to your ability to design engaging and innovative user experiences, we want you on our team.

Required skills:

- Formal training in graphic and web design;
- Minimum three years experience, ideally within an agency environment;
- A high degree of knowledge and passion for print, the Internet and Internet technologies; Video animation and editing.
- Experience in customized Facebook page design.
- Good understanding and experience with Campaign Monitor.
- Ability to design and create engaging, useable designs on time and on brief;
- Ability to handle multiple projects within a deadline driven environment;
- Excellent interpersonal and communications skills.

Required technical expertise:

- Expert knowledge of and experience with Creative Suite 5.5.(Indesign, Photoshop, Illustrator) Final Cut Pro, After Effects
- Understanding and experience with Search Engine Optimization;
- Experience using and designing for a content management system
- Excellent HTML, CSS, Cross Browser Compatibility and AJAX skills
- Expert knowledge of Flash and Actionscript

Lashbrook Marketing and Public Relations is a full service strategy and creative services firm located in London, Ontario. Wow us with your work! Please forward your resume and portfolio samples including urls to steve@lashbrook.ca

We appreciate all applicants however only those selected for an interview will be contacted. No phone calls please.